- 25X1A 1. [REDACTED] 350,000 Chinese troops were assembling along the border of Uttar Pradesh, Nepal and Assam.<sup>1</sup> The commanding officer of these troops was Major General CHANG Tzu-ming (張子明).
2. Between eight and nine well-equipped divisions of Chinese troops, numbering about 100,000 men, have been assembled in the area of China bordering Burma. These troops were from Kwangsi, Yunnan and Szechuan, and were under the command of LIU Po-ch'eng.
3. Kunming Airfield (102-45, 25-00) had two types of jet fighters, the MIG<sup>2</sup> and 25X1A an unknown type. Most were piloted by Soviets. [REDACTED] a training school for pilots staffed by Soviet instructors was opened at Kunming Airfield.
- 25X1A 1. [REDACTED] Comment. A news report emanating from Saigon on 24 February said that New Delhi reported 300,000 Chinese Communist troops massing in Southwest Tibet. On 4 March a Pan-Asia report from Hong Kong said Chinese troops were deployed along the Nepal border.
- 25X1A 2. [REDACTED] Comment. Presumably the MIG jet fighter encountered in Korea.
